Principles of The Freeport Chamber of Commerce:

- 1- Renders service to Freeport through the membership of the Freeport Chamber of Commerce
- 2- Works, at all times, in the best interests of: Freeport as a whole, the surrounding area, county, state, nation and the world in which we live.
- 3- Maintains close relations with other Chambers of Commerce: area, sate national and international, for the strength they may add to our own efforts and the support we may add to theirs.
- 4- Constantly upholds the highest concepts and standards of public service, ethical and moral conduct befitting the name "Chamber of Commerce"

Obligations of Membership:

- 1- Every member and everyone associated with him or her in his firm will do everything within his power to uphold these principles, concepts, standards and relations, both individually and through the Chamber of Commerce.
- 2- Membership in the Freeport Chamber of Commerce is each members investment in the development, improvement and progress of Freeport and its immediate area.
- 3- Each member recognizes that real dividends from his investment comes from a progressive community, therefore does not expect any direct returns as a consideration of membership even though they may be received.
